A Note from our President

We had one of the best Christmas programs ever Thursday at the Connections luncheon! We had a kindergarten class from Nadaburg elementary school come and sing Christmas songs for us. We all loved it and we left with lots of Christmas spirit. Pat Michel put together goodie bags for them and her husband did a run to get cheeseburgers which we had ordered them for lunch. They were adorable and we all remembered how we participated and how our own children would perform in a similar situation. We really loved having them come.

What a fun Christmas activity!
